ALVIN AND ROSA CASTRO

In 1996 Al and Rosa left California for Ensenada, Baja California, Mexico, to assist in a church plant. In 1998 they also began work as Ministry Coordinators for The Institute for Outreach Ministry, Azusa Pacific University, at their campus (The Ranch) in Ensenada. It was there that Centerpoint began a relationship with the Castros that, in 2010, turned into a Mission Partnership, when they founded and began to direct the school, CELCU (Training Center for the Urban Harvest). The school trains pastors and church leaders in the city of Ensenada. They currently have 4 satellites of CELCU, with over 60 students now in training, and have graduated almost 100 students in 8 years.
